

Welcome to the “wismath-calc” listserv!

The Wismath-calc is a listserv designed to facilitate interactive electronic communication among Wisconsin calculus teachers. It will be moderated by mathematics teachers and leaders from the Wisconsin Mathematics Council. This listserv will be used to:

- Hold interactive discussions related to the teaching of calculus
- Share teaching and assessment strategies
- Pose questions
- Share pertinent information and opportunities

The listserv is not intended to promote any particular product or curriculum, rather the goal is to provide a forum for calculus teachers to communicate with each other and engage in discussions related to the teaching and learning of topics related to calculus and other mathematics topics.

When you subscribe to the listserv, you will receive a reply requiring you to confirm your subscription by clicking on a link embedded in the reply.

The table below indicated how to subscribe, post messages, and unsubscribe to the listserv. As soon as your membership to wismath-calc is confirmed, you may begin posting and responding to messages at wismath-calc@lists.dpi.wi.gov.
